An Act

May 20, 1988
[H.R. 2889]

For the relief of Frances Silver.

Joseph Silver.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, for the purpose of determining the entitlement of Frances Silver of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to a survivor annuity under section 8341 of title 5, United States Code, Frances Silver shall be deemed to have been married to Joseph Silver on December 31, 1963, the date of his retirement from the United States Post Office Department, and continuously thereafter until May 9, 1970, the date of his death, and to have been designated by Joseph Silver, at the time he so retired and in conformity with all applicable regulations of the Office of Personnel Management, as the beneficiary of such survivor annuity.

SEC. 2. (a) Survivor benefits payable by virtue of the first section of this Act shall be payable to Frances Silver under chapter 83 of title 5, United States Code, commencing on the first day of the first calendar month beginning after the date of the enactment of this Act. The initial rate of such payment shall be the rate of survivor benefits which Frances Silver would have been entitled to receive for such month if she had become entitled to a survivor annuity under section 8341 of title 5, United States Code, on May 10, 1970, and had continued to be so entitled through the last day of the calendar month in which this Act is enacted.

(b) The Director of the Office of Personnel Management shall pay to Frances Silver, out of the Civil Service Retirement and Disability Fund, a lump sum annuity payment equal to the amounts which Frances Silver would have been entitled to receive under chapter 83 of title 5, United States Code, if she had been entitled to a survivor annuity under section 8341 of title 5, United States Code, during the period beginning May 10, 1970, and ending on the last day of the calendar month in which this Act is enacted.

SEC. 3. No part of the sums paid under section 2 in excess of 10 percent thereof shall be paid or delivered to, or received by, any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and such acts shall be unlawful, any contract or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the preceding sentence shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $1,000.

Approved May 20, 1988.
